DJ WONDER

Meet DJ Wonder, one of music's most in-demand DJs. His unique fusion of hip-hop combined with other genres has given him a distinct sound that sets him apart from other artists.

Wonder began his career at the top hip-hop station in the country - Hot 97. He was featured on multiple hit shows including Star And Bucwild, Joe Budden, Miss Jones and more. Wonder then ventured to the newly formed Shade45 On Sirius XM, where he earned a position as the Executive Producer of The Cipa Sounds Effect. He then became the Executive Producer and DJ of The Morning After With Angela Yee, followed by becoming a staple on Sway In The Morning. Not only was he the Executive Producer and DJ For Sway In The Morning, he also produced all of the original music on the show and created several segments that went viral, including Stump Wonder and The Five Fingers of Death (featuring artists such as Kendrick Lamar, Childish Gambino, and many more) which resulted in millions of views on youtube. While working on these shows (with 2 of his hosts inducted into the Radio Hall Of Fame) he founded DJ Wonder Presents: Animal Status on SiriusXM's Shade 45, where he interviewed a number of celebrities on the show including G Herbo, Lil Keed, Casanova, Blueface, and The-Dream. Currently, he has his own show called Complete Animals on Miami's Tubox 101.1 FM station which airs every Saturday from 2-6pm.

While radio is the heart and soul of where his career began, DJ Wonder has a passion for nightlife and social events where he showcases his ability to read a crowd and present an experience like no other. He has hosted events and created content for a multitude of brands including Netflix, Nike, Def Jam, Topo Chico and more. He has DJ'd exclusive parties at major festivals such as SXSW, Art Basel, Coachella, and The Super Bowl to events as prestigious as the Donda 2 afterparty for Kanye West. He spins regularly at some of the top clubs in the country including 10AK, Nobu, Soho House and Tao. Along the way, he has performed with the likes of Diplo, A-Trak, RL Grime, and The Chainsmokers amongst other incredible artists. His eclectic and open-format style allows him to pull tracks from any decade or genre and fit them perfectly into any of his mixes. His live shows include his own music and exclusive remixes, blended with scratching and mixing techniques that only a DJ comfortable in all genres could execute.

On the radio, Wonder is one of the pioneers of fusing the Hip-Hop and EDM worlds. These influences helped shape his original music - featured on his projects Morris Daze, Hungry AF, Vanity '84 and his release on Fool's Gold Records - Belief In The Occult. In addition, he holds music production credits on projects for artists such as Miguel, Harry Fraud, Fetty Wap, Erykah Badu, Kid Ink, Shaggy and Lil Jon. DJ Wonder is currently focusing on his own music and continues to work hard on production for many reputable artists.
