

NFL BASH

ABOUT Tarell Basham, aka NFL Bash, is a 29-year-old multi-talented artist and NFL player hailing from Rocky Mount, Virginia. He initially gained recognition for his football prowess, earning a spot on the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-American Team during his college years at Ohio University and getting drafted into the NFL in 2017. Now he is on track to make a name for himself in the music industry.

With a deep-rooted connection to music, Bash draws inspiration from old-school tunes, particularly 80s rock and alternative music. His creative and passionate spirit, coupled with his unwavering commitment and drive, fuels his musical journey. Bash possesses a unique ability to envision and connect with beats, allowing him to craft a versatile sound that blends elements of R&B, hip-hop, and rock.

Bash is a true mix of both a city and country boy, embracing his diverse background to create music that heals and uplifts, often focusing on themes of relationships. He is open to experimentation, ensuring his sound remains fresh and versatile. Bash's music is all about good vibes and connecting with his audience on a deep, yet energetic level.
